Public Improvement Guarantee Killed In Ohio Senate Vote

COLUMBUS (AP)—An attempt that appropriations for public improvements would not lapse before work is begun was defeated in the Ohio Senate Thursday. Ohio's lawmakers then began their weekend recess.

The defeat was pasted on Sen. William H. Deddens (R-Hamilton), the senator who led the onslaught Wednesday which defeated a bill aimed at trapping and destroying pigeons on Statehouse grounds.

Deddens' proposal to guarantee the life of public improvement appropriations until projects are completed needed 21 votes for Senate approval. It got only 17.

'Rabbit Fever' Tests Slated to Continue

COLUMBUS (AP)—Thirty-one Ohio Penitentiary inmates, their own dangerous jobs done, have been asked to recruit other prisoners as volunteers in an Army research project investigating deadly tularemia disease.

The 31, who submitted themselves to injections of tularemia (rabbit fever) vaccine, were presented with achievement certificates during a dinner honoring them Thursday night at the penitentiary.

Maj. Gen. William M. Creasy, chief Army chemical officer, in presenting the awards told the men:

"We have found that we need you to continue the tests and that we need help from you."

Army researchers, in cooperation with Ohio State University, have been conducting experiments to study the effects of tularemia as a cure against highly infectious diseases found most commonly among hunters.

As part of the experiments, the inmates were inoculated with live tularemia germs found in rabbits, squirrels and other rodents, and in the sometimes fatal bite of various insects.

CREASY TOLD the men they cannot take part in any further tests, but he asked that they "give all the assistance you can in getting enough volunteers."

The inmates were given superficial skin inoculations. In the tests still to come however, volunteers will breathe bacteria through the nose and mouth to infect the lungs. The tests, described as "somewhat more hazardous" than the first phase, will probably begin next fall, Creasy said.

Dr. Samuel Saslaw, associate professor of medicine and bacteriology at Ohio State, and head of the Army-sponsored project, told the men that, "everything possible is done to insure the safety of the volunteers."

Florida Chief Raps State Senate Move

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Florida Thursday adopted an interim resolution which Gov. Leroy Collins said makes the state look foolish.

The Florida Senate, in adopting the resolution which previously had passed the House of Representatives, joined Florida with several other Southern states in declaring rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court to be "null and void and without effect."

"This action stultifies our state," Collins said after the Senate vote. "It can do no good whatever, and those who say it can perpetuate a cruel hoax on the people."

Atty. Gen. Richard Erwin, however, said the declaration of interposition:

1. Tells the U. S. Supreme Court it exceeded its constitutional authority in interpreting the federal Constitution to call for integration of public schools.

2. Tells the court that compliances with its decision by Florida "is a factual impossibility at this time and that therefore Florida schools will not be integrated even though they are required to do so by court order."

The governor has no authority to veto a legislative resolution.

3 Burglars Die In Trap Set By Detectives

Gun Battle Follows Seven-Hour Vigil In Chicago Store

CHICAGO (AP)—Three burglars were shot to death early today in a quick and violent gun battle with seven detectives as they prepared to break open a downtown department store vault containing a quarter-million dollars.

The gunmen, including a former policeman, walked into a police trap in Mandel Bros. store and were mowed down by police machinegun and shotgun bullets.

The detectives, who had been hiding in the 11th floor credit department for seven hours after receiving a tip on the theft.

Lt. James J. Lynch said the three men, carrying burglary tools were about to attempt to open a safe when the detectives ordered them to surrender.

Beginning Monday, the Ohio House will start to work extra hours each week in the drive toward late-May adjournment. The Senate will begin its speedup the following week.

The House will meet Monday afternoon, but the Senate will delay its Monday afternoon sessions for seven days. Both plan Thursday afternoon sessions this week. Normally both Houses adjourn by noon each Thursday.

It was not disclosed how the men gained entrance to the store in the heart of the Loop.

The House passed and sent to the Senate the second of three big money bills to operate the state for the next two years. The measure carries more than $145½ million for state aid for the aged, crippled children, disabled workers and for vocational training and rehabilitation.

Without a dissenting vote, the House sent to the Senate bills to: Remove the present limit on levies for support of municipal utilities, permit levies for police operations similar to those now permitted for fire department running expenses, eliminate a requirement for city council approval of assessments levied by county commissioners for sewer improvements in districts embracing cities, permit district assessments to keep storm sewer ditches open.

Bertimic reportedly was carrying a small portable radio which he had tuned to pick up police broadcasts.

Police said that Rentner's gun was emptied while two rounds had been fired from Bertimic's weapon. They identified Rentner as a former policeman in suburban Maywood, who had been asked to resign last year.

The final version provides no money to continue a minerals buying program on which the Senate had insisted. President Eisenhower had asked $30 million. The House declined to vote anything.

Also dropped was a Senate provision to authorize use of cottonseed cake and other high protein feed in government drought relief programs. This had the backing of Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

IN THE WINDUP on the bill Thursday, the Senate was victorious on one point, but this was not an issue involving any substantial money savings.

The House repeatedly sought to tie to the bill a limitation on the amount of federal funds that could be given to the states to help pay the cost of administering federal grants.

Welfare Department officials said that under the limitation, the federal government could not meet its obligation to the states. The 1935 Social Security law requires Washington to pay 50 percent of the administrative costs.

The Senate fought against any limitation, and the House finally gave in.

2 Ohio Projects Await Work Bids

YOUNGSTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—Bids on two military projects, one at Sharonville, Ohio, and the other at the Springfield, Ohio, Municipal Airport, have been called for by the Army Engineers.

Ralph Caylor, who operates a market in Whittier, has two ostrich eggs. He has cornered the market in this area. Furthermore, ostriches are molting now and are not laying eggs.

But before you start, consider these statistics:

It takes 1½ hours to boil an ostrich egg, a hacksaw to open it, and the interior is equal to 3½ dozen chicken eggs. Price, about $20 an egg.

Probers Plan New Look at Payoffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate racks probers said today they will explore more deeply into alleged payoffs to Teamsters Union officials in Scranton, Pa.

"We are going to find out why they were not prosecuted," Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said.

Meantime, replies to some of McClellan's questions came from outside the hearing.

ONE EXPLANATION came from Oliver Dibble, the special federal prosecutor in charge of the Scranton case.

"If we indicted both men in such cases," he said, "we wouldn't be able to make one testify against the other," and he added:

"The grand jury decides which one is, so to speak, the more guilty and returns the indictment against him. Then the other serves as a witness."

Also speaking out was Earl P. Bettendorf of Texarkana, Tex., who said he had sent McClellan a telegram asking the right to appear as a witness "so that your committee can correct the injustice done me at Thursday's hearings."

Bettendorf, named as one of the businessmen making the payments, said news reports of the hearing "clearly indicate your committee is not in possession of the true facts in this case." He asked to appear and present records concerning the matter.

Earlier he had told newsmen that "the only settlement we made with the union was aboveboard," and added that the FBI "understands this case 100 per cent and has known about this case for two years."

Joseph McHugh and Robert Malloy, two of the Scranton unionists, said news reports of the hearing "clearly indicate your committee is not in possession of the true facts in this case." He asked to appear and present records concerning the matter.

Traffic Block Dispute Ends With Slaying

YOUNGSTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—A 22-year-old motorist, angered because a car was blocking traffic on a bridge, was shot dead when he got out to fight about it early today.

Police found August E. Bailey at Youngstown lying on a bridge at 3:15 a. m., dying of a gunshot wound in the chest. An unidentified friend was leaning over the dying man, crying.

A short time later police arrested Robert A. Murdock, 35, also of Youngstown. Detective Lt. Frank Watters said Murdock admitted the shooting. He was jailed.

Lt. Watters said Murdock related that he was walking home from a poker game when he stopped to talk to his brother on the bridge. A car driven by a friend stopped alongside them, and the three started conversing.

Murdock said Bailey drove up behind the stopped car and shouted at the driver to move it. When he did not do so, Bailey got out, called the driver's name and threatened to beat him up.

When Bailey came at him, Murdock said he fired several shots at his feet, but they did not stop him. He said Bailey knocked him down, and when he got up he fired the shot which proved fatal.

Murdock told officers he had returned to the hotel where he lives, changed clothes and reloaded his pistol "to get the rest of them."

Good Friday Services Attract Hundreds Here

Young people out of school, the last-minute rush to touch up the Spring wardrobe, and the throng at Good Friday services in the First Presbyterian Church here were only a few of the signs in Washington C. H. Friday that Easter was on its way.

The storm and floods of the early part of the month had been replaced by gentle spring weather, but the forecasters were still being cagey as to whether or not Easter Sunday itself would be a good day. Rain was predicted for Friday night and Saturday, and reports said it might end Sunday, then again it might not.

More than 5,000 city and country school children were getting a chance to enjoy the balmy temperatures and comfortable spring breezes as the school's gave them their annual spring vacation. The schools closed Thursday afternoon. Washington C. H. children won't have to go back until Wednesday morning. youngsters in the county are due back Tuesday.

Hundreds of people were at the First Presbyterian Church between 12 and 3 p. m., attending union

Good Friday services, commemorating Christ's suffering and death on the Cross. It was one of the many services in churches all over the county that would culminate at Easter morning when thousands of worshippers were expected out for the Easter Day worship.

Cash Runs Out, Boy Ends Tour

COLUMBUS (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Roger Jarrell's wanderings are over. He has "a little more than a dollar left," and he wants to go home.

His home is in Cleveland and that's where he was waiting to go Thursday night as he told authorities here about his travels the past month through the Midwest on $150 he had saved up.

Neatly dressed and cheery, Jarrell said he hitchhiked to the crucifixion stigmata—marks on her body corresponding to the wounds of Christ.

Moslem visitors crowded into Jerusalem. The devout like to come to Jerusalem every Friday in Ramadan to pray in the Dome of the Rock, third most holy place in world to Moslems. In an area where a Jewish temple once stood, a beautiful Moslem dome covers the rock from which the Prophet Mohammed is said to have risen into Heaven on his horse.

A FEW MILES to the north on Gerizim, near Nablus, the last 300 survivors of the Biblical Samaritan community gathered for their Saturday Passover feast, unchanged in any detail since the exodus from Egypt. Sheep, ritually slain during prayers on the mountainside, were being baked in earth, to be eaten with bitter herbs and unleavened bread, according to the rules of Moses.

The few hundred pilgrims from the Israeli sector of Jerusalem contrasted with several thousand who crossed the city's dividing line last year. It was the smallest number crossing for the Eastern observances since war divided the city nine years ago.

'New Deal' Revival Seen by Ohioans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohioans by the thousand, says the state's Republican senator, John Bricker, "think we're back in the old New Deal philosophy." They're aroused, he says, over President Eisenhower's $718 billion budget. Bricker says it can be trimmed by $5 billion.

Bricker said he received some 3,000 letters from Ohioans protesting the size of Eisenhower's budget. Most of the letters, he said, were responses to appeals he made through Ohio newspapers for suggestions on where to cut down on government spending.

Gun Battle Follows Seven-Hour Vigil In Chicago Store

CHICAGO (AP)—Three burglars were shot to death early today in a quick and violent gun battle with seven detectives as they prepared to break open a downtown department store vault containing a quarter-million dollars.

Under the constitution, an appropriation for a public building or water conservation dam, for instance, is good only for the life of the Legislature which granted the money. Unless the project is put under construction in the two-year life of the Legislature, the appropriation dies automatically.

Deddens' proposal had a chance of approval Thursday until the rollcall reached the name of Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mecham (R-Athens). Mecham's unexpected and resounding "no" drew immediate support from other Republicans and Deddens, whose traditional nickname in the Legislature is "Dynamite," went down to boisterous defeat.

The detectives, who had been hiding in the 11th floor credit department for seven hours after receiving a tip on the theft.

LYNCH IDENTIFIED two of the men as having been arrested previously. He said one of them, Jimmy Rentner, 30, had been released on bond recently on a robbery charge. He said James Wulf, 28, also had been arrested several times. The third man was identified as James Bertimio. Wulf lived in suburban Glencoe and the other two in Chicago.

Bertimio reportedly was carrying a small portable radio which he had tuned to pick up police broadcasts.

Police said that Rentner's gun was emptied while two rounds had been fired from Bertimio's weapon. They identified Rentner as a former policeman in suburban Maywood, who had been asked to resign last year.

Police Seek Loot Left by Slain Killer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Washington stenographer claims Sen. Lausche (D-Ohio) fired her or being "too liberal," but she's quick to add it's all right.

"I think Mr. Lausche is a conservative Democrat," she said. "The whole philosophy and thought in his office was so foreign to my way of thinking."

The stenographer, Mrs. Audrey Henrickson of Los Alamos and Santa Fe, N. M., worked for Sen. Morse (D-Ore) before joining Lausche's staff. Now she works for Sen. Clark (D-Pa).

Ray White, Lausche's administrative assistant, confirmed that Mrs. Henrickson had been discharged. He explained "she could not adopt herself to our routine."

Police say he slipped out of hiding long enough to rob a $66,000 payroll from a Windsor factory last week.

Since then police had been hot on his heels. They caught up with him Thursday this way:

His sister, Mrs. Wanda Slater, was hanging out the washing in her backyard when she heard someone whistle and call her name from the nearby woods.

She ran into the house and out the front door and drove to police headquarters.

State and local police soon surrounded the little white frame house, but they didn't know if the killer was inside. They edged up to an outside cellar hatchway and several of them ducked inside.

FBI special agent Richard Horan, 35, was one of them.

Suddenly the kitchen door at the top of the cellar stairs was flung open and the panicky killer fired blindly into the cellar.

The slug hit Horan in the chest. He turned, fired once up the stairs, and collapsed.

Then 20 minutes later two shots rang out from the kitchen. Police didn't know it, but the killer had shot himself to death.

Probers Plan New Look at Payoffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate racketeers probers said today they will explore more deeply into alleged payoffs to Teamsters Union officials in Scranton, Pa.

One question intriguing them is whether, if you can't jail them both, the giver or the taker of a payoff should be prosecuted.

The Justice Department has obtained federal indictments accusing three business agents of Scranton Teamsters Local 229 of receiving illegal payoffs from business firms. The Senate committee conducting the inquiry has ordered its staff to ask why no charges were brought against any of the companies or their officials.

"We are going to find out why they were not prosecuted," Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said.

Meantime, replies to some of McClellan's questions came from outside the hearing.

Joseph McHugh and Robert Malloy, two of the Scranton union's business agents, are charged in an indictment with accepting $4,200 from Bettendorf, who was providing warehouse pallets to the Army's Tobyhanna Signal Corps depot near Scranton during construction work there in 1953-54.

"We were forced to pay," Bettendorf said, adding that the only way a truck could enter the depot was by paying the union.

IN THE WINDUP on the bill Thursday, the Senate was victorious on one point, but this was not an issue involving any substantial money savings.

The House repeatedly sought to the bill a limitation on the amount of federal funds that could be given to the states to help pay the cost of administering federal grants.

Welfare Department officials said that under the limitation, the federal government could not meet its obligation to the states. The 1955 Social Security law requires Washington to pay 50 per cent of the administrative costs.

The Senate fought against any limitation, and the House finally gave in.

TB and Health Assn. Directors Meet

A budget of $6,085 for the 1957-58 fiscal year was approved by the board of directors of the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. at its regular meeting Thursday night.

Miss Frances White was named chairman of the constitution committee, with Warren Brannon and Mrs. Jan Stephens, association executive secretary, the other members.

The report on the fund-raising project to carry out a patient-benefit program at Mt. Logan Sanatorium, in which the Fayette County association participated, showed $626 had been raised in the six-county district last year to provide five new portable television sets for the patients.

PLANS FOR attending the annual state meeting of the Tuberculosis and Health Assn. in Columbus June 6 and 7 were discussed. Fayette County will be represented officially by Frank Grubbs.

The three new directors attending their first board meeting are David Six, Wilbur Snapp and Ralph Cook. TORNADO-TRACKERS
Need More Money

KANSAS CITY (P)—Weather men searching for the causes of tornadoes have reached this conclusion: they need money.

About $400,000 a year would do nicely.

The 100 delegates to the first American Meteorological Society conference on tornadoes finished three days of talking Thursday. Then Dr. Louis J. Battan of the University of Chicago meteorology department made this pitch:

"We need a network of observation stations closer together in the so-called tornado belt so we can keep in constant touch on meteorological conditions as these storms develop. We need three or four fully equipped airplanes flying in these storms, instead of the one we now have."

GOV. AVERIL HARRIMAN has signed a bill exempting U. N. delegations' property from taxation if they were within 15 miles from U. N. headquarters in New York City. The old limit, set by legislation in 1954, was 12 miles.

The new law brings the Afghananistan property at Great Neck within the tax-exempt range but still excludes Soviet Russia.

White Shrine Officers Installed At Impressive Ceremony Here

Mrs. Thomas Christopher was installed as worthy high priestess of the Ralph Kah Shrine here with impressive White Shrine ceremonies held in American Legion Hall.

She was presented the specially engraved gavel her daughter, Miss Sue Christopher, had used when she was the second honored queen of Job's Daughters here six years ago. Miss Christopher, who now lives in New York, also has sent her mother an armful of white roses, which she carried all during the ceremonies.

The new worthy high priestess was escorted around the cross formed by the new officers by her husband, Thomas Christopher, who also was installed as the watchman of the shepherds.

Other officers installed were: Ferrall Smith, associate watchman of shepherds; Mrs. Clifford Hughes, worthy scribe; Dana Hyer, worthy treasurer; Mrs. L. M. Hayes, worthy chaplain; Mrs. Wendell Whiteside, worthy shepherd; Mrs. Charles Reineke, worthy herald; Mrs. Elmer Reed, worthy herald;

Wendell Whiteside, first wise man; Donald Denen, second wise man; Hughay Thompson, third wise man; Dewey Sheidler, king; Mrs. Dewey Sheidler, queen;

Mrs. Paul Knisley, first hand maid; Mrs. Dorothy Harris, second hand maid; Mrs. Willard Lininger, third hand maid; Mrs. Paul Mohr, worthy organist;

Mrs. M. J. Whifford, worthy guardian; Mrs. G. B. Vance, worthy guard; American flag bearer, Mrs. Russell Mitchell Jr.; Mrs. Raymond Stephens, escort; Mrs. Hughey Thompson, shrine banner escort;

Mrs. Harold McConaughay, courier; Mrs. Ferrell Smith, flower girl; Mrs. Marian Smith, angel; Mrs. John Dial, Mrs. Leora Booco and Miss Vera Veall, matrons of honor;

Mrs. Howard Wright, Mrs. Fred Enslen, Mrs. J. H. Persinger and Mrs. Stanley Dray, queen's attendants;

John Dial, Fred Enslen, Howard Wright, L. M. Hayes, Stanley Dray and Dr. J. H. Persinger, the king's guards.

THE OFFICERS were installed by Mrs. Ralph Kah of Cincinnati, widow of the man for whom the White Shrine here was named and a past supreme worthy high priestess and head of the national organization.

She was assisted by Mrs. E. R. Grayson of Chillicothe, district deputy.

Other installing officers came here for the occasion from Greenville, Columbus and Hills boro.

Mrs. Helen Dunton, a past worthy high priestess, was the only member of the Ralph Kah Shrine among the installing officers.

Mrs. W. N. Huron, retiring worthy high priestess, and W. N.

Huron, retiring watchman of the shepherds, presided at the opening of the ceremony before the installing officers took charge.

The ceremony was conducted before an altar with its cross of white brought here by Mrs. Kah and against a backdrop centered by a gold key and Dutch iris, the flower of the order. In the background were the motto, "Sincerity of Purpose," and the emblem, "Dove of Peace."

Candle lighters and the choruses were members of Job's Daughters and DeMolay, both youth affiliates of the Masonic Order.

The White Shrine is an adult branch of the Masonic Order.

When Mrs. Christopher accepted

the office of worthy high priestess

she said she felt humble and a grave responsibility to

"keep our shrine alive" with the help of the other officers.

She closed her acceptance address with an original poem which closed with these lines:

With my fumbling hand steadied

By your hand supporting mine,

How can we fail to open wide

The doorway to our Shrine.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

When time for obtaining dog licenses without a $1 penalty, was up on Jan. 20, it was found that only about 2,850 licenses had been issued in the county, or about 700 less than the total number of dogs licensed last year.

It became apparent to Dog Warden Reginald Davis, who has held the position for four years, that he had a real job on his hands, of rounding up the unlicensed dogs, and if the owners failed to obtain licenses for them, to seize and dispose of the dogs.

So Davis started his house to house check-up to bring to light the hundreds of unlicensed dogs. This week he had boosted the number of licensed dogs to 3,031, and still has 500 or more to check.

Last year he picked up 700 tagless dogs and disposed of them.

This year the number may be greater.

Davis' task is made more difficult by the fact that he frequently finds no one at home, and must make at least a second trip to the premises.

If the dog owner does not pay the usual fee and the $1 penalty, Davis seizes the dog and takes it to the pound located on the County Infirmary farm.

Davis likes dogs, and has found homes for a large number of the animals which he was forced to seize.

All of the others are disposed of to a man from Piqua, who gathers them up at frequent intervals, and disposes of them in Indianapolis where they are used for scientific purposes.

In this way none of the dogs are killed by asphyxiation or other means, as was formerly done here.

It will require most of the year for Davis to complete his house-to-house check and pick up the unlicensed canines.

Those who have not obtained licenses for their dogs, can still do so by applying at the county auditor's office, paying the usual fee and $1 penalty. That will save the embarrassment of a visit from the dog warden.

COOL MAY AHEAD!
Yep! IT's going to be a cool, somerhat unsettled May, with some frost.

I dislike to break this news to you, but that is what the "Paint Valley Prophet" told me this week. How does he know?

"Why, there were fogs in February, and that is a sure sign," the prophet said.

SOMETHING FOR REFLECTION!

What is believed to be the latest device to "beat" meters and vending machines, is a "glass penny." The glass was coated for a mirror.

Several of these little mirror glass "pennies" have been taken from local vending machines recently.

Apparently the little circular mirrors were removed from some ornament or other object, for the cutting is too perfect to be done by an amateur.

Comparatively few "slugs" are found in the vending machines, and it is believed the little mirrors failed to trip the mechanism and that their use was a failure.

AN OLD SAYING
Although we do not hear it as often as we did 50 years ago, there is an old saying that someone repeats occasionally, and declares it is a good policy to follow. The old axiom is:

"Love many, trust few, and always paddle your own canoe."

I always will believe that the person who originated the old saying probably had been "taken for a ride" by someone whom he trusted.

20 YEARS AGO
Commissioners launched $100,000 road improvement program in the county to improve 100 miles of roadway and to furnish 200 men with employment.

Plans for rebuilding 5.21 miles of Jamestown Rd., from West Lancaster to the Greene County line, were announced.

Twenty years ago 2,100 employees were enrolled under the new Social Security, in Fayette County, and 293 employers were listed.

Council authorized employment of a traffic officer and urged prompt dealing with all loafers or transients.

Thirty WPA workers had been dropped from the payroll because of indifference and loafing on the job.

A citywide patching and resurfacing program was launched to improve the streets and provide employment for the idle.

Trotsky Widow Brought to U. S.

WASHINGTON (P) — Natalia J. Trotsky, the aged widow of old Bolshevik Leon Trotsky, has been admitted to this country temporarily "in the interest of the United States government," the Immigration Service says.

The admission is cloaked in some mystery. Presumably she was allowed to enter from Mexico where her exiled husband was assassinated 17 years ago.

Immigration Commissioner Joseph N. Sving said: "The circumstances, date and place of admission and her present whereabouts will not be disclosed."

Turncoat GI Plans To Get Married

ST. LOUIS (P) — Arlie Pate, turncoat prisoner of the Korean War, intends to get married, if and when he can find a job.

Pate took out a marriage license here with Barbara Jones of St. Louis. He said no date has been set for the wedding and won't be until he can find work.

Pate, 26, a strapping six-footer, moved to St. Louis from his farm home near Carbondale, Ill., after a fight with his father shortly after his return from Communist China. He was one of 21 American soldiers who elected to remain with their Red Chinese captors.

Grocery Bandits Pick Up $8,600

CLEVELAND (P) — Three gunmen, their faces partially masked with nylon stockings, shut 14 employees of a supermarket chain in a meat cooler and fled with about $8,600 from an East Side store Thursday night.

The 14 employees of the store, which had closed for the day, escaped the cooler through a second door which Manager Anthony McMullen said was overlooked by the gunmen.

TV Film Maker Uses Ingenuity

Kaiser Specializes In Short Subjects

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (P) — One day not long ago a bustling gentleman named Konstantin Kaiser was arrested for driving 40 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on one of New York's suburban parkways. Appearing in court a few days later, he cheerfully paid his $5 fine and then asked and received the judge's permission to show a film.

Onto a portable screen came an astonishing movie short. It had been made by Kaiser from the back seat of his car while being driven by his blonde and beautiful wife over the same stretch of parkway where he was arrested. The camera showed the speedometer at 40 miles an hour while other cars sped past. One driver swerved over to berate Mrs. Kaiser for driving so slowly.

Judge John P. Case has been assigned to the Brown County bench, on May 16, to hear an action pending in the Common Pleas Court there.

Empress Eugenie made popular the use of mascara, a fact quickly spread to social gatherings of belles in such United States cities as Newport and Saratoga.

The judge complimented Kaiser on his ingenuity. He received a barrel of complimentary mail and became the subject of newspaper editorials.

"It was almost as much fun as winning the Oscar," says Kaiser.

"It was the only noncommercial film I've made lately. I like to think of it as a sort of public service."

If you watch television, you often see films made by Kaiser's firm, Marathon TV Newsreel, Inc.

The sort of ingenuity and craftsmanship he displayed in court is quite typical of his work. An outstanding example was "Crashing the Water Barrier," the filmed story of Donald Campbell's record-breaking speedboat run on Lake Mead, Nev.

Made for an oil company, it won the Academy Award for the best one-reel short subject of the year.

Masons To Attend Service Together

Judge John H. Houston has set April 29 for hearing a lengthy motion filed in the case of Ohio against Beverly Clickner Wallis, who was indicted Feb. 2, for alleged embezzlement of $9,874.17 in Washington High School activity funds.

The motion was filed by the attorney for the accused, and asks for permission to examine bank records, school records, etc. pertaining to the case.

Arraignment is expected soon after the motion is disposed of by Judge Houston.

JUDGE ASSIGNED

Judge John P. Case has been assigned to the Brown County bench, on May 16, to hear an action pending in the Common Pleas Court there.

The judge complimented Kaiser on his ingenuity. He received a barrel of complimentary mail and became the subject of newspaper editorials.

"It was almost as much fun as winning the Oscar," says Kaiser.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

When time for obtaining dog licenses without a $1 penalty, was up on Jan. 20, it was found that only about 2,850 licenses had been issued in the county, or about 700 less than the total number of dogs licensed issued last year.

It became apparent to Dog Warden Reginald Davis, who has held the position for four years, that he had a real job on his hands, of rounding up the unlicensed dogs, and if the owners failed to obtain licenses for them, to seize and dispose of the dogs.

So Davis started his house to house check-up to bring to light the hundreds of unlicensed dogs. This week he had boosted the number of licensed dogs to 3,031, and still has 500 or more to check.

Last year he picked up 700 tags and disposed of them.

This year the number may be greater.

Davis' task is made more difficult by the fact that he frequently finds no one at home, and must make at least a second trip to the premises.

If the dog owner does not pay the usual fee and the $1 penalty, Davis seizes the dog and takes it to the pound located on the County Infirmary farm.

Davis likes dogs, and has found homes for a large number of the animals which he was forced to seize.

All of the others are disposed of to a man from Piqua, who gathers them up at frequent intervals, and disposes of them in Indianapolis where they are used for scientific purposes.

In this way none of the dogs are killed by asphyxiation or other means, as was formerly done here.

It will require most of the year for Davis to complete his house-to-house check and pick up the unlicensed canines.

Those who have not obtained licenses for their dogs, can still do so by applying at the county auditor's office, paying the usual fee and $1 penalty. That will save the embarrassment of a visit from the dog warden.

COOL MAY AHEAD!

Yep! IT's going to be a cool, somewhat unsettled May, with some frost.

I dislike to break this news to you, but that is what the "Paint Valley Prophet" told me this week. How does he know?

"Why, there were fogs in February, and that is a sure sign," the prophet said.

SOMETHING FOR REFLECTION!

What is believed to be the latest device to "heat" meters and vending machines, is a "glass penny." The glass was coated for a mirror.

Several of these little mirror glass "pennies" have been taken from local vending machines recently.

Apparently the little circular mirrors were removed from some ornament or other object, for the cutting is too perfect to be done by an amateur.

Comparatively few "slugs" are found in the vending machines, and it is believed the little mirrors failed to trip the mechanism and that their use was a failure.

AN OLD SAYING

Although we do not hear it as often as we did 50 years ago, there is an old saying that someone repeats occasionally, and declares it is a good policy to follow. The old axiom is:

"Love many, trust few, and always paddle your own canoe."

I always will believe that the person who originated the old saying probably had been "taken for a ride" by someone whom he trusted.

20 YEARS AGO

Commissioners launched $100,000 road improvement program in the county to improve 100 miles of roadway and to furnish 200 men with employment.

Plans for rebuilding 5.21 miles of Jamestown Rd., from West Lancaster to the Greene County line, were announced.

Twenty years ago 2,100 employees were enrolled under the new Social Security, in Fayette County, and 283 employers were listed.

Council authorized employment of a traffic officer and urged prompt dealing with all loafers or transients.

Thirty WPA workers had been dropped from the payroll because of indifference and loafing on the job.

A citywide patching and resurfacing program was launched to improve the streets and provide employment for the idle.

Trotsky Widow Brought to U. S.

WASHINGTON — Natalia J. Trotsky, the aged widow of old Bolshevik Leon Trotsky, has been admitted to this country temporarily "in the interest of the United States government," the Immigration Service says.

The admission is cloaked in some mystery. Presumably she was allowed to enter from Mexico where her exiled husband was assassinated 17 years ago.

Immigration Commissioner Joseph N. swing said: "The circumstances, date and place of admission and her present whereabouts will not be disclosed."

Turncoat GI Plans To Get Married

ST. LOUIS — Arlie Pate, turncoat prisoner of the Korean War, intends to get married, if and when he can find a job.

Pate took out a marriage license here with Barbara Jones of St. Louis. He said no date has been set for the wedding and won't be until he can find work.

Pate, 26, a strapping six-footer, moved to St. Louis from his farm home near Carbondale, Ill., after a fight with his father shortly after his return from Communist China. He was one of 21 American soldiers who elected to remain with their Red Chinese captors.

Grocery Bandits Pick Up $8,600

CLEVELAND — Three gunmen, their faces partially masked with nylon stockings, shut 14 employees of a supermarket chain in a meat cooler and fled with about $8,600 from an East Side store Thursday night.

The 14 employees of the store, which had closed for the day, escaped the cooler through a second door which Manager Anthony McMullen said was overlooked by the gunmen.

TV Film Maker Uses Ingenuity

Kalser Specializes In Short Subjects

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK — One day not long ago a bustling gentleman named Konstantin Kalser was arrested for driving 40 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on one of New York's suburban parkways.

Appearing in court a few days later, he cheerfully paid his $5 fine and then asked and received the judge's permission to show a film.

Onto a portable screen came an astonishing movie short. It had been made by Kalser from the back seat of his car while being driven by his blonde and beautiful wife over the same stretch of parkway where he was arrested.

The camera showed the speedometer at 40 miles an hour while other cars sped past. One driver swerved over to berate Mrs. Kal-ser for driving so slowly.

The judge complimented Kalser on his ingenuity. He received a parcel of complimentary mail and became the subject of newspaper editors.

"It was almost as much fun as winning the Oscar," says Kalser.

"It was the only noncommercial film I've made lately. I like to think of it as a sort of public service."

The gardening fever is in full swing by now.

Mulches should be removed with care and a little at a time.

All beds should be carefully raked over.

Spraying for various things now will save a lot of energy later.

Now is the time to plant those many shrubs, trees, and rose bushes, which are on the market now.

Uncover the spring flower ering bulbs carefully and get ready to plant the summer flowering varieties.

If you have not already done so,

prune grape vines and orchard

fruits at once. Box and privet hedges should be trimmed before they start into growth. Prune any dead off shrubs and rose bushes.

Late April is a good time to start repairing greenhouse and cold frame.

Fertilizing or plant food should be given to shrubs and plants, such as iris, roses, peonies, etc. After the plants are out in leaf you may be able to find indications of weakness, which should be cut back.

April is a very good month to let off that energy built up during the winter months.

The lawns can be mowed as soon as they get the right height.

Sowing of flower seed can be started.

Wait until the buds are about to appear on rose bushes, and then prune them. Remember pruning of roses is largely to develop new wood and to make them grow so that there will open air and sunlight in the center. The weaker

the rose, the more it needs pruning.

Remember, also, to sow a seed of kindness...

Yes, We All Need the Miracle of Easter

Probably most of us often wonder how many of us in our own community experience an actual inclination for more serious thought at Easter time.

Does Easter give us something in the nature of an indescribably "lift"? Does it have a different effect upon us than any other time of the year?

Just recently this writer experienced a rather strange sensation while talking with a Fayette County business man and the subject of the near approach of Easter was mentioned. This man, a jolly and jovial type, and not one to discuss anything of a religious nature in ordinary conversation, suddenly remarked, "Would you guess that when I hear the church bells ring on Easter morning, I become possessed with a serious thought that I am actually listening to the voice of God?"

Frankly I was impressed. I began to wonder how much this was true of others and whether I ever had been similarly affected.

It reminded me of something I had read only a day or two previously in which Dr. Marcus Bach, one of America's foremost religion reporters was quoted as saying, "Any one who has heard the church bells on Easter morning will recognize in them a voice which seems to tell us that God's in His Heaven and all's right with the world."

Delinquency Cure: Army Reserve

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—A man here who wears two hats feels he has a simple cure for the nation's juvenile delinquency.

"It would be cut 75 per cent if every boy in America went through military reserve training," said Alfred Tuckerman.

When he puts on one hat, Tuckerman, who started his business career as a clerk, is a partner in a top Manhattan management consultant firm.

When he puts on his other hat, Tuckerman, who began his military career as a private, is the two-star general who commands the 77th Infantry Division. It is one of 10 "ready reserve" divisions in the United States equipped for almost immediate combat duty in the event of mobilization.

Why should a boy of 17 or 18 join the Army reserve? Wouldn't it be better to wait and gamble on the draft?

Tuckerman, who enlisted himself in 1918 and feels his own business success springs largely from the results of military training, says no.

He points out that, if drafted, a youth has to serve a full two years on active duty, plus four

In our present day of world tension with the threat of strife so apparent in many lands, it is to be wondered whether this Easter will have any quieting effect on those pursuing a spirit of violence.

Undoubtedly many of us are inclined to wonder how closely the spiritual pattern of America is interwoven with the wonder that surrounds the occasion of Easter. From the extravagance of the much talked Fifth Avenue Easter parade and the crowded churches of New York City, to the poorest missions in our vast Southwest, the immortal need of Easter seems to be realized and felt.

As one great churchman describes Easter—"It is an adventure in faith and an expression of joy, deep and expressive in human experience. We desperately need Easter in the kind of world in which we live—a world in which there are often threats to spiritual values.

"Something in it does endure. It never really dies, for it is man's central, living hope and the triumph we touch in our brightest spiritual hours. Once more this year, when the bells ring out and Hallelujahs are joyfully sung, when spring comes again and the earth is glorious ly reborn, we pause for a moment to look up, and, listening, hear what seems to be the Voice of God."

"It would be cut 75 percent if every boy in America went through military reserve training," said Alfred Tuckerman.

When he puts on one hat, Tuckerman, who started his business career as a clerk, is a partner in a top Manhattan management consultant firm.

When he puts on his other hat, Tuckerman, who began his military career as a private, is the two-star general who commands the 77th Infantry Division. It is one of 10 "ready reserve" divisions in the United States equipped for almost immediate combat duty in the event of mobilization.

Why should a boy of 17 or 18 join the Army reserve? Wouldn't it be better to wait and gamble on the draft?

Tuckerman, who enlisted himself in 1918 and feels his own business success springs largely from the results of military training, says no.

He points out that, if drafted, a youth has to serve a full two years on active duty, plus four

In our present day of world tension with the threat of strife so apparent in many lands, it is to be wondered whether this Easter will have any quieting effect on those pursuing a spirit of violence.

Undoubtedly many of us are inclined to wonder how closely the spiritual pattern of America is interwoven with the wonder that surrounds the occasion of Easter. From the extravagance of the much talked Fifth Avenue Easter parade and the crowded churches of New York City, to the poorest missions in our vast Southwest, the immortal need of Easter seems to be realized and felt.

As one great churchman describes Easter—"It is an adventure in faith and an expression of joy, deep and expressive in human experience. We desperately need Easter in the kind of world in which we live—a world in which there are often trials to spiritual values.

"Something in it does endure. It never really dies, for it is man's central, living hope and the triumph we touch in our brightest spiritual hours. Once more this year, when the bells ring out and Hallelujahs are joyfully sung, when spring comes again and the earth is gloriously reborn, we pause for a moment to look up, and, listening, hear what seems to be the Voice of God."

years in the reserve. The same youth, if he enlists in the reserve program, has to spend only six months on active duty, can work out the rest of his obligation to Uncle Sam by spending one night a week at a reserve training center and attending two-week summer drills.

"It really does the kids good," he said. "It often provides them a career incentive at a period of life when they are unsure of themselves and uncertain of their future goals.

"They can elect their specialty, and get a basic grounding in such fields as administrative routine, radio, electronics, radar, atomic energy, or motor maintenance.

This is his summary of the civilian benefits of military training:

"It teaches you to analyze a problem, organize a solution, sell that solution to others verbally, and get it carried out.

"It also teaches you how to get along with other people, the fine art of human relations and" here General Tuckerman grain know in business and warfare:

"something you need to when to take proper evasive action."

Pleasant But Firm

All kids like vacations. And if your child is at all interested in adventure, he'll probably get a kick out of looking through travel folders. You can get them easily from travel agents, railroads and most newspapers.

Let your child help with simple household tasks like finding places where clothing needs to be mended and chopping nuts or shredding vegetables.

Best time for you to do your own housework is in the morning. Not only do you feel more like working during these hours, but your bedridden youngster is fresh enough to amuse himself for quite a while without your help.

Bedtime in the evening might be made more pleasant if it includes a warm bath and maybe a gentle rubdown.

The youngster probably will find it more relaxing and more pleasant if Daddy takes over for these final chores of the day. I

This would seem a reversion to the world of 1890, when the federal government minded its own business as provided for by the Constitution; when states looked after their own affairs without dependence upon Washington for aid; and when private enterprise and private charity performed most of the tasks which now fall to municipalities.

In PLAYWRIGHT MOSS HART'S sumptuous study, neatly framed, is the quotation from E. B. White: "I sometimes doubt that a writer should refine or improve his work room by so much as a dictionary. One thing leads to another and the first thing you know, he has a stuffed chair and is fast asleep in it."

The college psychiatrist was making notes on every student's childhood memories. "When you were a youngster," he asked a sophomore, "did your father ever spank you?"

"Did he?" exclaimed the sophomore, "I can still go to see a fortune teller, bend over and get my father's palm read!"

There's one veteran U. S. senator who has learned not to stick his neck out. To show how cautious he's become in fact, he was introduced recently to Siamese twins, and all he said was, "Brothers, I presume?"

Keep Child Amused While Convalescing

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
It's a great relief to learn that your ill youngster is on the road to recovery. But convalescence may take a long time.

Taking care of a convalescent child, especially if he is confined to bed, can be a real chore. Such a youngster, you see, is easily upset, tired—and easily bored.

Doctor's Advice

It's up to you to see that he gets enough rest when he needs it and to keep him occupied when he is not tired. Get your doctor's advice on just what your child can and can't do while recovering from an illness or injury.

Interests of a young convalescent change quickly. Of course, there is always television, radio and phonograph records to help pass the time. But he'll tire of these things eventually.

Travel Folders

All kids like vacations. And if your child is at all interested in adventure, he'll probably get a kick out of looking through travel folders. You can get them easily from travel agents, railroads and most newspapers.

Best time for you to do your own housework is in the morning. Not only do you feel more like working during these hours, but your bedridden youngster is fresh enough to amuse himself for quite a while without your help.

Pleasant But Firm

Be pleasant but firm when it is time for him to eat or to nap.

place he said Congress may want to cut. They came to a total of $1,800,000,000. Did this look like a contradiction of what he said April 3. It really wasn't.

This is why:

It's because of government arithmetic that the cut sounds bigger than it is.

Early in January he sent his budget message to Congress and, in effect, this is what he said:

"I'm asking you to approve my spending of $73,300,000,000. Actually I will spend only $71,800,000,000 of it in the 1958 fiscal year beginning next July 1. The rest—a difference of 1½ billion—can be spent in following years."

Even so, that $71,800,000,000 in actual spending money was a record peacetime budget. His administration was attacked in and out of Congress. Big cuts in the budget were demanded.

But Eisenhower argued that the figure was about the best he could offer. On April 3—when his Budget Bureau was combing his budget all over again, looking for spots to economize—he didn't expect to find reductions "big enough to be startling . . . I am not thinking in terms of two billions, for example."

In Congress the House Democrats voted overwhelmingly with the Republicans overwhelmingly opposed—for a resolution calling on Eisenhower to tell Congress where cuts could be made.

Thursday he answered the challenge by sending a special message to Congress, suggesting some reductions and noting some other places he said Congress may want to cut. They came to a total of $1,800,000,000. Did this look like a contradiction of what he said April 3. It really wasn't.

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good.

4-H Clubs Prepare 97 Steer Calves for Summer Showing

A total of 97 4-H fed steer calves—the largest number recorded here in many years—is being prepared in Fayette County now for summer showing. Associate Extension Agent Phil Grover said today.

Last year, only about 75 calves were shown, Grover said.

Most of the 46 Herefords, 42 Angus and 11 Shorthorns will be shown at the Fayette County Fair in July, Grover said, but a few will be held over for the Columbus Producers Assn. Show in October.

IN 1955, Grover recalled, Kay McGowan, a Fayette County 4-H girl, had the champion Hereford at the producer's show, while last year, Jerry Hoppe, another 4-H youth, who showed the grand champion here, had the reserve grand champion at the Columbus event.

Barbed Wire Now Prevents Following Christ's Route

EDITOR'S NOTE: Tension between Jewish Israel and Arab Jordan make it impossible for Christian pilgrims to follow Christ's footsteps from the Last Supper to the Crucifixion. But "holy fire" symbolizing the hopeful message of Christianity still leaps the barbed wire, giving promise that peace may yet come to this troubled land. Here is a report on divided Jerusalem at Easter, 1957, last in a series of famous sites of the Holy Land.

By WILTON WYNN
JERUSALEM (P)—On the night of His crucifixion, Jesus and His apostles gathered in an upper room in Jerusalem for their last supper together. After the meal, Jesus walked outside the city to the lower slopes of the Mount of Olives and awaited His inevitable betrayal and arrest.

Today barbed wire, guns, and a hundred yards of no-man's-land prevent anyone walking from that upper room to the Mount of Olives. The site of the last supper is on the Israeli side of Jerusalem, while the Mount of Olives is on the Arab side.

On either side of the no-man's-land dividing the holy city are armed sentries, ready to blaze away at the slightest provocation. Jewish Israel and Arab Jordan have been in a state of war since 1948, with only an uneasy armistice silencing the guns on either side.

On April 1, the United States State Department lifted the travel ban which had put Israel and Jordan off limits to American tourists ever since the start of the Suez crisis.

Before the 1948 Arab-Israeli war, a pilgrimage from the Latin convent inside the old city went to the Cenacle, site of the last supper, every year on Maundy Thursday. Because of the division

Mrs. Ward was assisted by Mrs. Charles Mustine, assistant leader.

Members who attended were Bonnie Henderson, Loretta Johnson, Lynn Johnson, Judy Morris, Becky Mustine, Sue Neal, Elaine Palmer, Michele Stemple, Marjorie Stratton, Judy Ward, Mary Ann Moore, Vicki Gormley, Mary Donohoe, Helen Fuller and Jerry Griffith.

Upon arrival they hunted candy Easter eggs that had been concealed throughout the home. At the finish of the hunt, refreshments were served.

After a short business session attention was given to the progress of the for-get-me-not seeds that had been planted.

The group filled Easter baskets that are to be taken to the Children's Home.

Events of the last supper still are commemorated, however, by Christian communities on the Arab side of the line. The Greek Orthodox hold a spectacular service every Wednesday before Easter in the courtyard of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

On a raised platform in the courtyard sit 12 men representing the church. A statue of Jesus is taken from a cross on Calvary and placed on the stone of unction, a marble slab near the entrance of the church where traditions say Jesus' body was anointed for burial. Weeping women fall prostrate and kiss the stone as the body is lifted and taken inside a small chapel under the main dome of the church.

On the evening of Good Friday a solemn burial service is held in this church. Weeping women fall prostrate and kiss the stone as the body is lifted and taken inside a small chapel under the main dome of the church.

Inside this little chapel, with massive candlesticks on either side of the entrance, is the Holy Sepulchre, the goal of Christian pilgrims since the Fourth Century. Little is left of the original sepulchre, because most of the rock has been chipped away over the centuries. A marble slab covers the area where Jesus' body is said to have lain.

After Jesus' body was placed in the grave and the rolling stone over the door sealed, His disciples must have suffered the depths of despair. And even after they saw the empty tomb, there were still doubts; some wondered if the body had been stolen.

This period of despair is commemorated in a unique service on the roof of the church by a group of Ethiopian monks. Called "the search for the body of Christ," this service involves a mournful march around the rotunda of the church, with tombs beating slowly under the Pascal moon. When the words are read from the Bible, "He is not here, for He is risen," the group breaks into wild rejoicing.

The procession stops at each of 14 "stations of the cross," where a sermon is preached in the language of the group. Each station marks a dramatic moment in the way of the cross, including the places where Jesus fell under the weight of the cross. During this procession some of the pilgrims usually carry heavy crosses that on which Jesus was crucified.

The procession ends inside the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, an aged structure covering the traditional site of Calvary and the tomb. The procession climbs a flight of stone stairs to the site of the crucifixion. Here a glass case covers a bit of the rock of the original hill of the execution. A huge crack in the stone is said to have been caused by the earthquake that rocked the earth as Jesus breathed His last.

The fact that even war cannot prevent the spread of the holy fire from one country to another perhaps has a deep significance to the simple people of the holy land today. Perhaps this means that there still is hope they may see the end of the conflict which has divided their land, that the day may yet come when their swords and spears will be beaten into plowshares and pruning-hooks and "when nation shall not rise up against nation, neither shall they know war any more."

British Arms Cut Gets Commons OK

LONDON (P) — The House of Commons has approved the Conservative government's decision to trim the British armed forces and rely on nuclear weapons.

The defense plan is pegged to a future arsenal of American-made guided missiles fitted with nuclear warheads made in Britain. A mobile ground force is also to be maintained to be rushed into action when small wars threaten.

The program is calculated to cut Britain's armed forces almost in half over the next five years with an immediate saving of $196 million in the next year. Britain's shaky financial situation made the cuts necessary.

Birdie Chirps Bitterly about 'Spitballer'

Milwaukee's Burdette Again Target of Blast By Redleg Manager

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Here we go again, Lew Burdette says he doesn't throw a spitter. Birdie Tebbetts insists he does. "A cheating spitballer," says the Cincinnati manager. But Warren Giles says "you have to prove it to me."

Whatever Burdette, Milwaukee's shutout ace, does when he spins his stuff for the Braves, old Satch Paige had a term for it — "outpsychologizin' the hitter."

That's what Burdette had in mind when he said "It's the best pitch I've got—and I don't throw it," in reply to Tebbetts' renewed cry after the Redlegs lost to the big righthander 1-0 Thursday. It was the eighth successive time Burdette, who led the National League with six shutouts, midst similar "spitter" charges last season, has whipped Cincinnati and Tebbetts is "pretty tired of him getting away with murder."

Birdie, who insists Burdette "went to his mouth before every pitch," chirped so loud his boss, General Manager Gabe Paul, decided to lodge an official protest today and ask Giles, the league president, for a clarification of rule 8:02, which states a pitcher cannot "apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball" under penalty of a 10-day suspension.

"Until someone — the unipes or someone — presents evidence that Burdette issuing the spitter, I'll do nothing about it," said Giles, adding that "a lot of pitchers make a hitter think they're throwing a spitter, but there's nothing illegal about it."

Legal or not, Burdette's victory, fashioned on Hank Aaron's first home run of the year in the sixth inning off loser Hall Jeffcoat, handed the winless Redlegs second defeat and left the Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers the only unbeaten clubs in the league.

The Dodgers, with Sal Maglie throwing a four-hitter, knocked off Pittsburgh 6-1. The Chicago Cubs cracked 15 hits to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 10-2. And the New York Giants kept Philadelphia winless 6-2.

In the American, the winless Detroit Tigers lost their third in a row, this time to Cleveland, 8-3, in 11 innings. The New York Yankees again had to rally in the ninth, beating Boston 3-2. Chicago's White Sox handed Kansas City its first defeat, 6-2, behind Jack Harshman's four-hitter. And Washington finally became a winner with a 6-4 job on Baltimore.

Maglie, who will be 40 a week from today, struck out five and walked three while gaining a 23-5 lifetime record against the Pirates in his 200th major league start. The lone Pirate run was unearned. Duke Snider, the NL's defending home run king, smacked his first of the year and Gil Hodges hit his second for Brooks, who cracked southpaw Luis Arroyo and three relievers for 14 hits.

Young Moe Drabowsky, the Cubs' bonus righthander, permitted just four hits in whipping the Cards. Gene Baker led the assault on Murry Dickson and four Card relief pitchers, driving in four runs with a triple, double and single. Stan Musial, his back in shape, played his 776th consecutive game, but was hitless.

Ruben Gomez, backed up by Hank Sauer's 250th home run, and a three-run Homer by Gail Harris, beat the Phils and Curt Simmons with an eight-hitter.

Rookie Roger Maris made his first major league home run the major's first grand slammer of the season, capping a five-run 11th for the Tribe. Bobby Avila's sacrifice fly scored the run that broke a 3-all tie. Ray Narleski

Broader Plan Is Considered By '500 Club'

Now that the "500 Club" is within sight of its goal of $500 for putting glass bankboards in the Washington C. H. High School gym, the members spent most of last night's meeting discussing ways for expanding their budding organization for effective support of other school activities.

The original purpose of the club, it was explained, was to raise $500 for the glass bankboards and then grow into a basketball booster's club. Its originators said they felt a group similar to the Boosters Club which lends its support primarily to football would provide a stimulant for basketball in the winter.

Now, the small group is considering going even further by supporting a variety of school activities.

No decisions were reached at the meeting which was held at the home of Don Swaim, 532 N. North St., but a good many ideas and suggestions were tossed into the hopper for consideration.

Throughout the discussions, it was emphasized that the group would carry on a program, when and if one is set up, in cooperation with the school administration.

Bob Lytton, secretary-treasurer, reported that 60 per cent of the money for the bankboards had been collected and expressed confidence that the goal would be reached.

Backing the club movement are Coach Herb Russell, Hilbert Myers, Emery Lynch, Don Graves, Eddie Kirk, Dr. Charles F. Pfeiffer, Dr. Marvin Roszman, Leonard Korn, Lytton and Swaim.

HOLLYWOOD — Dizzy Dean, who used to be a pitcher and now is a baseball announcer, may soon be a movie star.

C. V. Whitney, who heads a film producing company, said he has offered the onetime St. Louis Cardinals' pitching ace a "four-week, five-figure" contract to appear in "The Missouri Traveler."

Ol' Diz, who reportedly favors the deal, would play the part of a small town storekeeper.

won it with Al Aber the loser, both in relief.

Pete Ramons gave up only three hits in 6 1/3 relief innings to win for the Senators. Ray Moore, who walked 10, was the loser.

The Yankees needed a fly-RBI triple by Gil McDougald and Elston Howard's single for two ninth-inning runs in edging the Red Sox and Frank Sullivan, who retired 19 in a row at one point.

Bob Grim won in relief.

Harshman rode in one back-to-back homers by Minnie Minoso and Sherm Lollar, good for three seventh-inning runs and a solo shot of his own in the eighth.

Loser Alex Kellner and Joe DeMaestri homered for the A's.

Baseball Teams Set To Practice

City Represented In Two Leagues

With the baseball season opening here only a couple of weeks away, the two teams that will represent Washington C. H. in organized leagues are getting down to the serious part of their preparations to take the field.

One, managed by Bob Hildreth, Jeffersonville High School Coach, will play in the tough Heart of Ohio League. It is merchant-backed and takes the name of Athletics, the name of many Washington C. H. teams in the past.

The other, managed by Tommy Smalley, will continue to play in the Southwestern Ohio League. It is sponsored by Harold Ross and a Junior Satterfield and will go for the sake of brevity, under the name of H & S for the time being.

Hildreth has called for two weekend practices for the Athletics at 2 p. m. both Saturday and Sunday afternoons — at the park on Oakland Ave.

A card embracing 26 events, including one-mile relays for high schools, colleges and universities, is on the agenda.

All Western Conference schools except Minnesota and Iowa are entered, along with Notre Dame and Pittsburgh. Other out-of-state teams include Miami, Ohio University, Baldwin Wallace, Ohio Wesleyan, Youngstown, Western Reserve and Kent State.

At Mansfield, at least 112 schools and 1,302 athletes are booked for the 26th annual cinder classic, which opens with a four-mile relay event this afternoon.

Seventeen other events are on the program Saturday.

Teams from Ohio, Michigan,

Pennsylvania and West Virginia

were cleared for the high school crown captured last year by Pontiac, Mich.

Akron North and Cleveland John

Adams, co-titlists last year in

Ohio, Mount Lebanon, the Penn sylvania state champion and Pon iac, Michigan's track king, are entered in the meet.

But top contenders appear to be powerful Cleveland East Tech, winner four times in the last six years, Lakewood, Pittsburgh Central Catholic and Mount Lebanon.

Top performers competing in the Mansfield track and field carnival include Dave Mills, Lakewood's 440-yard dasher; Norm Bass of Springfield, a specialist in the 180-yard low hurdles, and Dan Sutherland, shot put star from Berea.

All three were state champs in Ohio last year.

Heading the list of entries in the

Ohio Relays is Glenn Davis, Ohio

State's versatile star; Greg Bell of Indiana, generally regarded as the most serious threat to Jesse

Owens' broad jump record; Dave

Owen, Michigan, shot put; Al Ur

bankas, Illinois, high jump; Ira

Murchison of Western Michigan, who shares the world record in the 100-met dash; and Willie Mays of Indiana, Big Ten champ in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Birdie Chirps Bitterly about 'Spitballer'

Milwaukee's Burdette Again Target of Blast By Redleg Manager

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Here we go again. Lew Burdette says he doesn't throw a spitter. Birdie Tebbetts insists he does. "A cheating spitballer," says the Cincinnati manager. But Warren Giles says "you have to prove it to me."

Whatever Burdette, Milwaukee's shutout ace, does when he spins his stuff for the Braves, old Satch Paige had a term for it — "outpsychologizing the hitter."

That's what Burdette had in mind when he said "It's the best pitch I've got — and I don't throw it," in reply to Tebbetts' renewed cry after the Redlegs lost to the big righthander 1-0 Thursday. It was the eighth successive time Burdette, who led the National League with six shutouts amidst similar "spitter" charges last season, has whipped Cincinnati and Tebbetts is "pretty tired of him getting away with murder."

Birdie, who insists Burdette "went to his mouth before every pitch," chirped so loud his boss, General Manager Gabe Paul, decided to lodge an official protest today and ask Giles, the league president, for a clarification of rule 8:02, which states a pitcher cannot "apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball" under penalty of a 10-day suspension.

"Until someone — the unipres or someone — presents evidence that Burdette issuing the spitter, I'll do nothing about it," said Giles, adding that "a lot of pitchers make hitter think they're throwing a spitter, but there's nothing illegal about it."

Legal or not, Burdette's victory, fashioned on Hank Aaron's first home run of the year in the sixth inning off loser Hall Jeffcoat, handed the winless Redlegs a second defeat and left the Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers the only unbeaten clubs in the league.

The Dodgers, with Sal Maglie throwing a four-hitter, knocked off Pittsburgh 6-1. The Chicago Cubs cracked 15 hits to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 10-2. And the New York Giants kept Philadelphia winless 6-2.

In the American, the winless Detroit Tigers lost their third in a row, this time to Cleveland, 8-3, in 11 innings. The New York Yankees again had to rally in the ninth, beating Boston 3-2. Chicago's White Sox handed Kansas City its first defeat, 6-2, behind Jack Harshman's four-hitter. And Washington finally became a winner with a 6-4 job on Baltimore.

Maglie, who will be 40 a week from today, struck out five and walked three while gaining a 23-5 lifetime record against the Pirates in his 200th major league start. The lone Pirate run was unearned. Duke Snider, the NL's defending home run king, smacked his first of the year, and Gil Hodges hit his second for Brooks, who cracked southpaw Luis Arroyo and three relievers for 14 hits.

Young Moe Drabowsky, the Cubs' bonus righthander, permitted just four hits in whipping the Cards. Gene Baker led the assault on Murry Dickson and four Card relief pitchers, driving in four runs with a triple, double and single. Stan Musial, his back in shape, played his 77th consecutive game, but was hitless.

Ruben Gomez, backed up by Hank Sauer's 25th home run, and a three-run homer by Gail Harris, beat the Phils and Curt Simmons with an eight-hitter.

Rookie Roger Maris made his first major league home run the major's first grand slammer of the season, capping a five-run 11th for the Tribe. Bobby Avila's sacrifice fly scored the run that broke a 3-all tie. Ray Narleski

WHS Tracksters Swamp Franklin Heights Squad

Washington High School Tracksters trampled the Franklin Heights squad at Gardner Park Thursday, 91½-26½, for their second straight track victory of the new season.

Hampered by bad practice weather and poor field conditions, the Lion track team has nevertheless succeeded in coping two victories in as many meets since the beginning of the season. They beat Wilmington Monday.

SMALLEY has called for a try-out and practice for the H & S team Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the National Cash Register Co. field out S. Fayette St.

He was optimistic as he told of the 17 hopefuls who were out for last Sunday's practice, but he said "we could still use some pitchers."

The SWO loop has now been expanded to eight teams—Washington C. H., Milledgeville, Greenfield, Blanchester, Bloomingburg, two in Chillicothe and one in Columbus.

The Bloomingburg team, Smalley said, will be made up of men from "all over this section . . . mostly in Fayette County."

Gene Slaughter of Jackson High School will discuss team defense at the clinic, while Mollenkoph will demonstrate the T-formation of offense.

Bob Shertzen, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., will discuss general offense.

Widdoes will concentrate on the I-formation.

Backing the club movement are Coach Herb Russell, Hilbert Myers, Emery Lynch, Don Graves, Eddie Kirk, Dr. Charles F. Pfeiffer, Dr. Marvin Roszman, Leon Korn, Lytton and Swaim.

Washington C. H. High School Football Coach Fred Domenico and grid staff member Dick Filbin are at the Athens event, picking up tips to help the Lions in their fall campaign.

Bob Lytton, secretary-treasurer, reported that 60 per cent of the money for the bankboards had been collected and expressed confidence that the goal would be reached.

Ohio League OK'd By Baseball Group

Kluszewski said he was to undergo further X-ray treatment by a Milwaukee specialist.

Browns Trade 6 Men for 2 Packers

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, rich in quarterbacks but poor on defense, Thursday traded signal caller Bobby Garrett and linebacker Roger Zatkoff to the Cleveland Browns for six players, five of them defensive specialists.

Cochiz Coach of the National Football League Packers, said he was "happy to get these boys because they will give me a lot of experience in the defensive unit."

Blackburn indicated the Packers still have some dealing to do when he said "there will probably be more developments later."

In exchange for Garrett and Zatkoff the Packers received quarterback back Parilli, and Carlton Massey, halfbacks John Petition and Billy Kinard, tackle John Macerelli, center Sam Palumbo.

The way was cleared for the trade when the Packers Thursday signed veteran quarterback Tobin Rote for his eighth season. Rote, who had talked earlier of retirement, got about a $1,500 increase in pay to put to his annual salary at $20,000. In addition to Rote the Packers also have second-year man Bart Starr and former Notre Dame great Paul Hornung available for quarterbacking duties.

It was anticipated that, if the Packers swing any more trades, Parilli would be involved.

The Babe is a former Packer, and was acquired by the Browns in 1954 in exchange for Garrett.

The one-two pre-tournament Las Vegas betting choices, Cary Middlecoff and Dow Finsterwald, fared poorly. Each had a 75.

Mad Bomber Sent To Insane Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — A New York judge Thursday ordered Mad Bomber George Metesky committed to a criminal insane hospital. Metesky, 54, himself was not in court to hear the ruling by Kings County Judge Samuel Leibowitz. The court referred to recent medical reports that the prisoner is dying of tuberculosis.

Metesky was arrested in January at his home in Waterbury, Conn., and smilingly admitted he was the one who had been planting bombs throughout Manhattan and Brooklyn. He explained his acts were revenge for failing to receive proper compensation for an injury received in 1931 while working for a utility company.

He is being held in lieu of $100,000 bond in Cook County Jail. The rape allegedly occurred March 9, 1956 after he reportedly met the girl at a carnival.

Bedwell, 21, former odd-jobs man on Chicago's Skid Row, was once accused of the slaying of the Grimes sisters, Barbara, 15, and Patricia, 13, whose nude bodies were found Jan. 23.

CHICAGO (AP) — Middletown, Ohio, Hospital was named a divisional winner Thursday in the 1956 Hospital Safety Contest sponsored by the American Medical Assn. and the National Safety Council.

Congress Eyes Huge Farmer Research Bill

WASHINGTON — Congress has before it a proposal for a $100 million-a-year research program to find new industrial uses for farm products and to develop new crops.

The commission on increased industrial uses for agricultural products said in a report submitted Thursday that such a program offered the only hope of putting a "free and efficient" agriculture on a prosperous basis and of reducing taxpayer costs of farm aid programs.

The five-man commission was authorized by Congress and appointed by President Eisenhower.

It said an increased research program may show ways of converting many farm products into materials for making plastics, paints, building and structural materials, glues, waxes, adhesives, industrial oils, coatings, improved clothing materials, detergents and drugs.

At the present time, the Agriculture Department is spending about $16,145,000 a year on research of this type.

The department also reported that U. S. farmers picked up a meat tab of about $19½ million for the European corn borer last year.

The department estimated that this insect pest destroyed about 98 million bushels of corn. This corn had a value of about $1.22 a bushel.

While this amount of loss was high (representing about 3 per cent of the crop), it nevertheless was smaller than 1955 losses of 155 million bushels. Iowa, Illinois and Indiana stood 1-2-3 in order of losses.

The borer is an immigrant insect that has made its home in the U. S. for 40 years.

Unfinished Sentence

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Richard Corbett, 29, Lafayette, pleaded guilty to writing a fraudulent $28 check and stood to hear Circuit Judge Paul D. Ewan pronounce sentence.

"Not less than one year nor more than 10 years in the State Reformatory . . ."

Corbett fainted.

After he was revived, Corbett learned the judge finished with: ". . . sentence suspended."

More than Fifth of U. S.
'Whites' of African Origin

BOWLING GREEN — An Ohio State University researcher said today a study indicates that more than 21 per cent of Americans classified as white are descendants of persons of African origin.

And from the study, said Dr. Robert P. Stuckert, graduate instructor of sociology at the university, "it is possible to estimate" that in less than two generations more than half the persons classified as white will have some African.

Statistical computations in the study were based on a number of assumptions. With one exception, said Dr. Stuckert, the assumptions made "would tend to minimize the final estimate."

At one point in the study, two alternative assumptions were made. One was on a basis of selective mating; the other on a basis of random mating.

Explaining this, Dr. Stuckert said: "Under selective mating, the probability of whites of non-African ancestry mating with persons classified as Negro is one-tenth of what would be expected if mating were random."

On the selective mating assumption, the study showed that 21.1 per cent or 28,423,000 persons had African ancestry out of 135,215,000 persons classified as whites in 1950.

On the random mating assumption, the percentage of whites with African ancestry in 1950 would have been 54.9 per cent or 74,202,000 persons.

Dr. Stuckert said he believes the 54.9 per cent figure approximates a maximum estimate, but that the 21.1 per cent figure probably is an underestimate.

But, he said, either of these estimates is sufficient to indicate that the popular belief in the non-African background of white persons is invalid.

Four Drivers Fined;
Three Forfeit Bond

Four people were fined for miscellaneous traffic offenses by Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice.

President Eisenhower said Wednesday that Stassen had informed him the outlook in the disarmament talks was more hopeful than at any time since World War II.

Zorin hinted at a Foreign Press Assn. luncheon Thursday Russia might open some of its territory to inspection under the "open skies" plan Eisenhower proposed two years ago. The Soviet delegate said the geographical limits of the aerial mapping plan "can be settled in negotiations" between East and West.

The Kremlins station told the Spanish people Thursday night against joining NATO.

"This entails terrible risks," said the Spanish-language broadcast, which came just a week after the U. S. Congress urged Spain's admission into the Atlantic Alliance.

The Kremlin station told the Spanish people in terms similar to recent warnings to NATO members and other U. S. allies that any soil used as a base for aggression would be subject to retaliation.

Leonard Johnson Jones, 52, of near Washington C. H. was fined $10 and costs after he pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to renew his license to the department of Motor Vehicles. Jones was ordered to surrender his license after he allegedly failed to purchase the financial responsibility insurance he was ordered to get as a result of a prior conviction for driving while intoxicated.

For being $20 bond on a speeding charge was William Land, 40, of Bellefontaine. Sherman Ames, 51, of Zanesville, forfeited $20 bond on a charge of crossing a yellow line.

Charged with failure to yield the right of way was Harold J. Gleeson, 51, of Prospect, forfeited $15 bond.

One cap turned up in the pocket of a little girl's coat.

Another boy said he'd tossed a couple in a waste basket at school and another said he'd thrown about 10 in a creek.

One of the boys who admitted taking the caps led police to an old coal pit where about 15 and the dynamite were recovered.

Ordinarily, the caps are exploded with an electrical charge.
